

MENTORS PROFILES | ACMA YOUNG BLOODS “Ask Me Anything”

Tuesday 25 May 7pm, Burwood RSL

DR SUSAN CHU & DR TON C LEE
General Practitioners

Graduates of UNSW, Ton and Susan have worked in general practice since 1996 and manage their own medical practices. They are GP Synergy supervisors and have been involved in training GP registrars for more than 15 years. They teach medical students from the Universities of Sydney, Western Sydney and Newcastle. Susan has also been a RACGP and Diploma Child Health Examiner. They are happy to share their experiences working in general practice and give advice for GP training.

DR FRANK YAN
Allergist, Respiratory
and Sleep Physician

Frank is a senior staff specialist at Department of Respiratory Department St George Hospital, and a VMO at Allergy Unit RPA Hospital. He acquired his FRACP in 2003. He runs his private Practice and has an active role in education of junior doctors in the hospital and also GPs in the community. He is interested in sharing ideas with advanced trainees on how to set up private practice and how to structure their business.

DR ALPHA TUNG
Anaesthetist

Alpha is the Director of Anaesthesia at Auburn Hospital. She is passionate about teaching, improving the health system and empowering others to do their best work. She is an Anaesthetic College Primary Examiner and a keen Simulation Instructor. In her spare time, she likes to explore her creative side and loves to paint and crochet. She loves creating events with her trainees, the most recent being the Easter Egg Hunt.

DR ANDREW CHEUNG
Radiologist and Interventional
Neuroradiologist

Andrew is a VMO at Liverpool Hospital and POWH. He is Clinical Lead of Neurointervention at Liverpool Hospital and runs a private Neurointervention practice. He currently serves on RANZCR council, ANZSNR council, and is Co-Chair of the RANZCR Interventional Radiology and Interventional Neuroradiology Training Pathway Working Group. He is supervisor of Neurointervention training at Liverpool, supervisor of the Interventional SRMOs at Liverpool and POWH, and a UNSW Medicine Phase 3 lecturer.

DR SAMUEL SEIT
Skin Cancer & Cosmetic
Medicine | Entrepreneur

Samuel specializes in Skin Cancer and Cosmetic Medicine. Having served as trainer and examiner in the ACCS, CPCA and the American Board of Laser Surgery, he has also lectured and chaired numerous national and international conferences and mentored many doctors. He is the Global Medical Director for Specclipse (real time skin cancer diagnosis using AI). His other professional interest is assisting doctors in wealth creation and property investments.

DR STEPHEN HING
Ophthalmologist

Stephen became an ophthalmologist in 1988 after training in Auckland, Sydney and London. He has stepped down from being Department Head at the Children's Hospital Westmead, but is still involved in training ophthalmology registrars in private practice, and he assists in the trainee selection process. He has managed to juggle his career, family life, church commitments, ACMA, and teaching in various countries in Asia.

DR KENNETH HO
Dermatologist

Kenneth is a dermatologist in private practice in Hurstville. His dermatology career started with researching the effect of sunscreen on the skin immune system (University of Sydney). His first year of formal dermatology training was in Dublin, Ireland as part of the Australasian College of Dermatologists' training programme. He then returned to RPA Hospital to complete the rest of his training. He was a visiting medical officer in RPA with supervisory duties in dermatology registrar training.

A/PROF STEPHEN LI
Chemical Pathologist
& Clinical Lipidologist

Stephen Li is a Chemical Pathologist and the Director of Chemical Pathology Services at Westmead Hospital. He is also a Clinical Lipidologist at Westmead Hospital. For community services, he is the ACMA Community Health Chair; Vice-Chairman of CASS and CASS Care, and an Executive of CanRevive.

DR TONY PANG
Hepatobiliary & Pancreatic Surgeon

Tony is a hepatobiliary and pancreatic (HPB) surgeon based at Westmead Hospital. He has been a core member of the surgical training executive team at Westmead since 2014 and has guided numerous surgically-inclined RMOs and SRMOs into successful surgical (and non-surgical) careers. As a "hobby surgeon", he has wide-ranging interests outside of the operating theatres, including research, education, statistics and medical device development.

DR MICHAEL SUEN
Colorectal Surgeon

Michael is a Colorectal Surgeon based in Concord Repatriation Hospital. He served in the NSW Training Board of General Surgery for many years. He is the current Surgical Education and Training Supervisor of his hospital. As an academic at the Concord Institute of Academic Surgery, he has been involved in supervising surgical trainees and medical students in multiple research projects.

DR ALEX TING
Career Medical Officer

Alex is a Senior Career Medical Officer and Medical Officer in Charge (MOIC) at Auburn Hospital. He is passionate about improving the health of socially disadvantaged groups, and believes ACMA is the ideal platform for doctors to help the community at large. Previously, Alex was DPET (Director of Prevocational Education & Training) of JMOs at Auburn Hospital. He is a strong advocate for JMOs for their education and general wellbeing.

SPONSORS PROFILES | ACMA YOUNG BLOODS

DR JOANNA DING
Pathologist at DHM

A graduate of UNSW, Joanna trained as a general pathologist at Canberra Hospital. After obtaining her Fellowship, she worked six months in Vancouver before returning to Australia to further pursue her interests in cytopathology. Subsequently, she joined Douglass Hanly Moir Pathology. Her main areas of expertise are cytopathology, histopathology and haematology. Joanna is currently an Adjunct Senior Lecturer in Pathology at the University of Notre Dame.

Douglass Hanly Moir

Timothy Bowen

TIMOTHY BOWEN
Lawyer at MIGA

Timothy leads MIGA's advocacy, policy and engagement. A qualified lawyer, Timothy previously worked for many years representing doctors and healthcare facilities in medical negligence claims, professional regulatory / disciplinary matters and coronial inquests. He is an adjunct fellow at the Western Sydney University Schools of Law and Medicine, and an editorial board member of the Australian Health Law Bulletin.

MIGA

EVENT ORGANISER | ACMA YOUNG BLOODS

Tuesday 25 May 7pm, Burwood RSL

DR TONY CHU
Creative Doctor

Tony is a paediatric CMO and also a trained actor, professional screenwriter and award-winning filmmaker. Combining medicine with creativity, he is a Lecturer on Medical Communication and Medical Coordinator for MACA [Medical And Corporate Actors]. As the former President of the Creative Doctors Network, Tony keenly supports doctors with creative interests.

Dr Tony Chu
Event Organiser

e: creative@acma.org.au

w: www.acma.org.au

f: www.facebook.com/acmansw

f: www.facebook.com/acmayoungbloods

